

Farmhouse Studio Intern Program Recording Opportunities

Farmhouse Studio partners with Visible Music College in order to mentor, develop and instruct upper class Music Production students. These students work out of Farmhouse Studio under the supervision/instruction of Producer/Engineer Bryan Hayes (CEO - Farmhouse Studio, Professor of Music Production – Visible Music College, Avid Certified Instructor – Pro Tools, Executive Director – Roots & American Music Society). These interns work with Memphis/Midsouth area Songwriters and Musicians on real world sessions. The end result is a quality product that the Artist/Songwriter can release commercially, and that the Student Producer/Engineer can use to build their portfolio/resume.

Due to the extremely low cost and high demand of these sessions, Songwriters/Musicians must apply, be reviewed and then accepted as an official Intern Project Artist. Applications for the upcoming semester will be available on the Farmhouse Studio web site Monday SEP 9th: www.farmhouserecordingstudio.com
