What if I had been the one, who walked on the water when you said, "come?"
What if I had been the one, who touched the hem of Your garment & was healed?
Or the one who gave my fish and loaves and You fed the thousands with my lunch?

What if I had been the one, would I be changed or would I still be the same?

Yeshua, I have been changed...I will never be the same. 3x

What if I had been the little girl, who died and You woke me up from death?
What if I was the one with crippled feet, You spoke, and I began to leap?
Or the one, blind and could not see, You reached out and touched me and set me free?

I was blind but now I can see. 3x

Chorus

You said, "come to Me." You said, "don't be afraid."
You said, "have faith in G-d, only believe."
You said, "I'll supply your every need; remember My Words will be your seed."
You said, "your faith has made you whole; believe now, these words you have been told."

Ending

Abba, yes, I am the one, I have been changed by Your son.
I've been changed. I will never be the same. 3x

Abba, yes, I am the one, I have been changed by Your son.
