

Ryan Marshall

Biography

Ryan Edward Marshall is a singer-songwriter and guitarist from Harrow, North West London.

Born: 4th April 1981 (age 35).

London based songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Ryan Marshall was almost born with a guitar in his hands. He grew up listening to his father's record collection, with Hendrix, Clapton, and Santana on constant rotation to inspire his developing musical ear. An improviser at heart, guitar remains the focal point of Ryan's music. As Hype magazine put it: "If you thought you understood what guitar playing was, you need to take a moment to watch this video and seriously reconsider."

Ryan is currently writing and recording a new album of original material, combining harmonic and melodic influences from his love of jazz with the raw soul of blues, he creates honest, spirited music.

Completely self-funded, Ryan utilises his background in audio engineering, recording, mixing and producing his own work. Being a dab hand with a camera comes in handy too!

Ryan's live band is made up of some of London's finest session and touring musicians, players who respond to and push his creative direction in the live moment.
