

CHEER ME UP

music and lyrics by Drew Hill

© 2020 Drew Hill Music

Sad and blue
Nothing new
Seems the whole damned world's gone crazy, it's not you

So ya' dim the lights
Take a deep breath in
And you're starting toward the door, where you came in

But ya' can't go out
But ya' can't stay in
Or you swear you'll lose your mind all over again

And you turn to your phone
Seeking some desperate release
And you wish there was somewhere, to find some peace

Then amongst the hate, the lies and all the sorrow
There is one place you can be

Can I sing you a song to cheer you up my lovely
Won't you tune in to sing along from near or far, where you are
And it's never too late to sing along my lovely
Can I sing you a song,
Can we all singalong with you...my lovely

Started out, like a bizarre dream
A virtual illusion so it seemed

Seemed so strange,
No audience in sight
But my screen said you were there, to share my night.

So I shut my eyes and the songs came through
And I played them like I never played for you
And suddenly, I could clearly see
That my past, present, and future were with me

Then amongst the hate, the lies and all the sorrow
There is one place you can be

Can I sing you a song to cheer you up my lovely
Won't you tune in to sing along from near or far, where you are
And it's never too late to sing along my lovely
Can I sing you a song,
Can we all singalong with you...my lovely