

Living With The Blues
Channing Wilson ©2006

Capo 2nd fret play in D

Verse 1:

D A D
I've been trying not to think about you darlin'
G A D
I've been climbing up and down our naked walls
G A D
knowing what I know now makes me wonder E A
how much longer I can stand before I fall

Verse 2:

D A D
Life has been so easy since you left
G A D
I get up each day with nothing to do
G A D G
I've been hoping to find a better way of living
D A D
but it just seemed to walked out with you

Chorus:

G A D
now ever night I lay down I can hear
G A D
the echos of love in our bedroom G A D G
knowing I'll never hold you again in your dancing shoes
D A D
is the hardest part of living with the blues

Verse 3:

D A D
I've been on a drunk trying to cloud my mind
G A D
but things don't get better 'till they do
G A D G
I guess sometimes you win nothing and sometimes you just lose
D A D
that's the way it is when you're living with the blues

Chorus:

Tag:
G A D G
this ol' line I'm walking ain't the life I choose
D A D
That's the hardest part of living with the blues
