

BOOKING
Robby Cummings
Beyond the Veil Music Ministry

Thank you for considering having Robby come and be a part of the work God is doing in your area. We are honored to have this opportunity to work with you to make this a successful event. Robby and team always aim to serve and minister as the Holy Spirit leads. In our pursuit to be faithful stewards of the time and resources we have been given, we have developed the following set of expectations that we consider important to the protection and mission of our traveling team.

One of Robby's main callings in ministry is to see the generations set free to radically pursue the heart of God here on earth. Please keep in mind that Robby is not an entertainer but, rather, a psalmist who desires to minister from the presence of the Lord. Robby carries a breakthrough anointing. Whether through worship, spoken word, or teaching, his desire is to help facilitate a powerful encounter with Jesus Christ.

Robby has given his life fully to the work God has called him to, and he works hard to serve Him in every way with a spirit of excellence, honor and integrity. Because of what it takes to uphold this commitment in his life and ministry on the road, we ask that you plan on budgeting a minimum honorarium of $1,000 plus travel expenses.

We also ask that you would grant Robby permission to sell his CD's at the event and retain all proceeds for his ministry use. Please provide one 6-8ft table for this purpose where his product can be displayed and sold.

As stated above, the minimum you need to budget for is $1,000. This is for Robby +1, depending on if Robby's wife (singer) is available to come with him. However, the full band (3-5 people) would be $2,000 per night. Robby prefers to travel with a band when possible, as it allows him to be at his best and focus more on leading, however he is willing to work alone or with skilled musicians from the area if need be. Please let us know which you prefer during initial booking.

Above all else, Robby's heart is to minister and leave a lasting impact on people's lives wherever he goes. Therefore, if the amounts above do not seem feasible for your church or group, please contact us to discuss further options of giving.

Travel

Robby has a minimum honorarium for himself and any additional band members, so that he may continue to sustain his family and do the work that God has called him to do. Therefore, we also ask that you cover his and his team's travel expenses, which include mileage or airfare (as applicable), lodging, and meals.

Since Robby lives close to Chattanooga, Tennessee, he and his team typically prefer to fly out of Chattanooga Airport, but depending on rates, they will also fly out of Knoxville or sometimes even Atlanta international airport if necessary.

If within driving distance, mileage/gas/food should be covered at 54.5 cents (2018 standard mileage rate) per mile per vehicle required to get our team there and back.

Reasonable lodging and meals will also need to be provided for team when overnight stay is required.

Travel expenses will need to be paid and received at least a week before the event. All checks can be made payable to Robby Cummings, or if you prefer to pay via PayPal, our email is robbycummingmusic@gmail.com.

If you are in agreement with these expectations, the next step is to fill out the invitation form on the booking page of our website if you haven't already (<https://robbycumming.com/booking>). Upon receiving your invitation, we expect that your decision makers are also in agreement with the details of this letter. Each invitation is considered prayerfully and is approved as the Lord leads.
