

Call for Music Submissions – Wendy McIntyre CD Project

Ascension Entertainment Group is seeking new material for the sophomore CD project for singer/songwriter Wendy McIntyre. Songs will be included on the project to be released in 2012. Music in the neo-soul, R&B/soul or jazz genres are preferred. However, songs in other genres will be reviewed and considered. In order to have different textures on the CD, the artist is primarily seeking completed songs – music and lyrics.

Submission Dates: August 8 –September 9, 2011

Submission Format: Send mp3 snippets -2:00 minutes or less of instrumental or complete songs (music and lyrics)* to music submissions@wendymcintyremusic.com. Options to send include: yousendit (zip files) or drop box features.

We are requesting only songs that hold copyright or snippets be submitted for consideration to protect your intellectual property.

Production Agreement/Terms of Service:

Please forward your terms for engagement (production agreement). Your agreement/ should include cost for services/production & your availability to be present for studio sessions or if your services will be rendered virtually. (Skype).

*Compilation Projects: If you are releasing a project and would like to feature Wendy McIntyre as a guest vocalist, please specify that with your submission. A limited number of compilation submissions (1 or 2) will be considered for the CD project.

Submission Review and Notification: Submissions will be reviewed on ongoing basis through the submission period until September 30, 2011. Producers or their designees will be notified of selection no later than October 7, 2011.
