

This is an early childhood education story full of teachable moments.

Goal: build empathy and social awareness, emotional self regulation, colour knowledge, gross motor skills and problem solving

....

Recap:

*Clementine & Callum are fighting! Will they be able to use their emotional intelligence, problem solving skills and good old kindness to work through their differences?

Learn the story of:

-- Where leprechauns get gold from? What kind of entry level job creates such a stable market economy ;D

- Why the colour green is so important on St Patricks Day? I mean why not Yellow like the Fairies want!

-Can I forgive someone and take responsibility for hurting someone and be a better Leprechaun?

Now discuss story with your little humans ...

Think ★star ★ -----Fun Fact: This is interview skills I taught as Employment
