

KAREN MORAND

Karen Morand has roots that run deep. The Windsor (Ontario) based award winning singer-songwriter does life off the beaten path with her sleeves rolled up. Always with an eye on the eternal, she crafts songs of hope and substance. After garnering the Canada South Songwriter of the Year, she is releasing her fourth release since 2012. "Every Flash of Light." is a gutsy collaboration birthed in the South that includes Steve Hindalong (The Choir) and Linda McRae (Spirit of the West). Karen has pushed these songs beyond the safer edges of folk. Delivered with powerhouse vocals, the songs maintain a warm and soulful style. With Producer Deni Gauthier's edgy sensibilities, these tracks have a fresh rawness and grit. The result is rocking bluesy folk.
