

Good Job God

Lyrics and music: Elana Jagoda Kaye

Inspired by the book "God Must Really Love Colors"

capo 2

G

Oh I see the trees swaying in the breeze

C

They stand so tall with their roots down deep

D

They are such a special part of this world

Bm

C

G

Good job God I guess you knew

Em

That when you made trees

D

G

I'd like them too

G

Oh I see the stars in the sky at night

C

Like little magic glowing lights

D

They're such a special part of this world

Bm

C

G

Good job God I guess you knew

Em

That when you made stars

D

G

I'd like them too

D

All the elephants, giraffes and lamas

C

G

Hippos, monkeys, and iguanas

D

Cows and cats and kangaroos

C

G

Koala bears and cockatoos

Bm

C

G

So many creatures large and small

Em

D

G

Good job God I like them all

G

Oh I see the mountain so strong and wide

C

I'd like to climb to the other side

G

D

They're such a special part of this world

Bm

C

G

Good job God I guess you knew

Em

That when you made mountains

D

G

I'd like them too

G

Oh I see the oceans so blue and deep

C

I guess that's where the fishes sleep

G

D

They are such a special part of this world

Bm

C

G

Good job God I guess you knew

Em

That when you made oceans

D

G

I'd like them too

D

All the slithering snakes and centipedes

C

G

butterflies and bumblebees

D

caterpillars in their cocoons

C

G

lions, tigers and baboons

Bm

C

G

How 'bout them upside down opossums

Em

D

G

Good job God I think they're awesome

Bm

C

G

Good job God I guess you knew

Em

D

G

That when you made me, I'd like you too
