

2 Peter 3:10-12 (King James Version)

10But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

Note:

This passage should make every Christian smile. When the day of the Lord's return comes to pass, we will finally be with Him and all things will be made new. This doesn't mean we stop working for the Lord or worshiping until that day. If anything, these times we live in require a greater amount of prayer and worship than ever before. We are living in the days of Noah, and there are many people, even some of your friends and family, that do not know the Lord. Stay in prayer and always be grateful for whatever God puts in your life. Don't worry! Instead praise the God who made you and know that He has your and your loved ones best interest at heart.
