

Looking For a Remix

I've always loved to dance (no matter how goofy I look), but I didn't get truly interested in electronic music until a few years ago. My boyfriend loves house music, and I started going to shows and festivals with him. Every time I was in the audience, I'd think to myself, "Man, this music is so dope, why don't I do this?!"

While my music doesn't exactly beg to be danced to, I wanted to step out of my comfort zone. I've never collaborated on a project like this, and I was curious to hear what other people turned my songs into. Plus, I've met a bunch of awesome people who happen to be DJs and producers, and if I can help promote another starving artist, I'm all for it!

I went to Facebook and other social media outlets to post my wanted ad. It was open to anyone, from anywhere, of any genre. There were 3 songs (only pianos and vocals) available to remix. I got several responses, reconnected with old friends and made a few new ones too.

After listening to all of the submissions repeatedly, as well as sharing them with my EDM loving friends, we decided the obvious winner was See It All by Derek Sea. I'm so glad that I got to feature him and his awesome work on my CD... We met several years ago at a music conference in California. We've stayed Facebook friends since then, and it's so cool that now we're on a CD together!

If you want to hear more than See It All, the top 3 remixes are available on SoundCloud!
