Ruth Nichols Jazz & Soul Project

ABOUT

Ruth Nichols is a trumpeter, vocalist and songwriter based in Los Angeles. She performs across many genres, which she uses to inform her own dynamic and versatile project (duo/trio/quartet). Her trumpet style invokes the melodic cool of Chet Baker as well as the fiery spirit of Freddie Hubbard. As a vocalist Ruth effortlessly shifts from soul, pop, swinging jazz, French torch songs and Bossa Nova.

Ruth's original music project under the name MAHEALANE combines these influences into a modern combination of soul/jazz/pop/hip hop with messages about the ups and downs of love, daily life, hard hitting political truths and self discovery.

Ruth has performed/recorded/toured with many acts of all genres including Grammy-winning groups: Flor de Toloache and Clare Fischer Big Band as well as pop artists including Lemaitre, Stanaj, Maty Noyes, Wesley Stromberg, MacKenzie Bourg and the funk/hip hop group Urban Renewal Project.
