Joe Jonas, part of the Jonas Brothers music trio, has checked out a Flatiron District penthouse duplex near Madison Square Park.

Jonas and his artist girlfriend Blanda Eggenschwiler looked at 21 East 22nd Street, which is currently asking $8,500 per month in rent. The two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment has a private outdoor terrace that leads to a communal roof deck, according to the New York Post.

The apartment is listed with Michael Rubin of CORE, according to the newspaper, which did not include a comment from Jonas or the broker.
