8 Unbelievable Penthouses for Sale Around the World

These luxurious residences invite owners to embrace sky-high living

New York City – Stats: 4 Bedrooms, 4.5 Baths, 5,646 SF, $23.75 Million

Located on a historic block in Nolita, one of Manhattan's most sought-after neighborhoods, this new boutique building holds just six residences and was designed by architecture and development firm Flank. Spanning the top two floors, the penthouse features en suite bathrooms in every bathroom, as well as four private terraces and two parking spaces.

The kitchen opens onto one of the terraces and boasts views of the Empire State Building.
