Gen. 37-50

In the outworking of both the trials and triumphs of Joseph, we see the unfolding of God's providence—a beautifully woven tapestry of His wisdom and goodness in the fulfillment of His divine plan. Here we glean five truths which strengthen our faith.

- I. God's _____ and compassionate _____ are always real, even when evil is inflicted upon us by others.

- II. God's merciful _____ includes larger, _____ purposes for suffering, which are beyond the scope of our view and understanding.

- III. God's _____ is sure since the Judge of Heaven is ultimately responsible for the _____ of all evil.

IV. God's _____ does not negate human _____, nor does it make Him responsible for sin.

V. God's _____ and grace toward sinners are gloriously _____ in our suffering when we choose to trust Him enough to love our enemies and forgive them.
