A Survey of the Bible – Part 6F
'Your Descendants After You' Study Questions

1). What do the events of Moses' life that we have seen so far tell us about the Christ at His first advent?

a). And again, from the events we have seen so far in Exodus, what do we learn about the Children of Israel at the Lord's first advent?

2). Read Exodus 3:1-2 – What do these verses teach us about Israel, past, present and future?

a). What do these verses teach us about the purpose of God?

3). Read Genesis 15:13-14 and Genesis 50:24-26 – What connection is there between these 2 sets of verses?

a). What connection is there between these sets of verses and Moses at the burning bush?

b). How accurate was the timing which God gave to Abraham in Genesis 15:13-14 and how would we know?

c). What might we learn from this about Israel and their future?

4). With regards to God's timing, how important are the first 34 verses of Genesis to understanding this?

a). What time has God allotted for the restoration of fallen Man? How do we know? And how has God divided up that time?

5). Read Daniel 9:24-26 – When did the dispensation of the Jews begin?

a). What is God telling Daniel in these verses?

b). When did God stop His dealings with Israel?

c). When did the present dispensation begin?

d). What will mark the end of this dispensation? And when will God resume His dealings with Israel?

e). When does Daniel's 70th week end and when does the Millennial Kingdom Begin?

f). Why do you think God gives us such specific details about all these timings?

g). How accurate is God's timing with respect to the 2000 years of this dispensation?

h). So, why aren't we there yet?

i). Read Hebrews 10:37-38 – what do we learn from these verses and what does God’s timing for this dispensation have to do with faith to the saving of the soul?

j). Putting all this together, what thoughts do you have about God’s timing for the resurrection/rapture and our preparedness for it? Can you think of any scripture that directly warns us about our actions as we see the return of Christ approaching?

Any final thoughts?
