AN ORDINANCE introduced by Deputy Mayor Duane F. Pomeroy, pertaining to an amendment to the text and map of the Topeka Comprehensive Metropolitan Plan placed on first reading December 30, 2003, was again presented. (CPA03/03)

Bill Fiander, Planning Director gave the staff report and explained the four themes presented in the plan:

- Re-establish the area between 10th Street and Kansas Avenue extending to the railroad tracks, west of Monroe Street to a residential area
- Designate the Monroe School as a National Historic site
- Identify historic cultural resources
- Balance and better accommodate the “Mixed Use” area.

Wayne Hill gave the history of their family business located in the Monroe Neighborhood.

John Hamilton, representing several homeowners and business owners in the Monroe area spoke in opposition of the plan. He also distributed written comments from Marc Lahr who was ill and asked that all zoning cases be denied except Zoning Case No. Z03/38.

Frank Kirtdoll stated that he opposes the plan and all downzoning except Zoning Case
No. Z03/38.

Larry Hill, Hill & Co. stated that the plan would cause harm to their family business expansion. He continued to explain that he was grandfathered into the current zoning regulations however, if the downzoning is approved any future buyers would have to operate a warehouse type business, or lose the zoning classification.

Councilmember Preisner asked for assurance that they would not build a warehouse on the property during Phase II of the plan.

Councilmember Duffy asked if Mr. Hill is willing to relocate his business and if any individuals or organizations have offered to assist with relocation.

Councilmember Pomeroy asked if the traffic would increase if a new warehouse was built.

In response, Mr. Hill stated that they would not build a warehouse for two years if the plan is not approved and zoning is not changed. He continued to explain that he has visited with the City of Topeka Chief Administrative Officer, Go Topeka, the Federal Government and several independent business owners and developers and an alternative has not been reached. He also stated that the majority of the traffic flow would still come to the main building, not the warehouse.

Bob Keeshan appeared in opposition to the plan and urged the Council to kill the plan. He stated that the majority of the people in the Monroe area are opposed to the plan. He stated that he believes the City record concerning the plan is inaccurate. He submitted two videotapes of Planning Commission meetings to the Mayor for the record. He continued to explain that if the plan were passed Hill & Co. would not have any defenses for rezoning in the future.

Eunice Baggerly stated that she supports the plan and would like to see more residents in the area.

Amy Herrick, owner of Reliable Car Shop stated that the downzoning would degrade and erode the future value of her property. She explained that the average property tax generated from a business in the area is $14,700 and $1,004 from homeowners.

Fred Sanders stated that the Topeka Housing Authority (THA) would not pursue any projects in the Monroe area. The THA is working on a model block project for the area and hope to make a presentation on February 25, 2004, however, the Monroe NIA has been excluded from the decision making process for the project.

Henry McClure stated that he opposes the plan because it does not address the highest and best use of the property.

Jennie Prichard, Vice President of the Monroe NIA stated that she opposes the plan because it exceeds the NIA boundaries and she believes it is an attempt to control the land.

Joseph Schoonover stated that residential blight in the Monroe area was aided by two failed plans, and he is opposed to this one. He stated that a plan should be created based on reality instead of what the potential might be.

Gary Schnellbacker, real estate appraiser stated that he is opposed to downzoning as a concept because it takes away the value of the property.

Dave Ireland explained the vote of the Topeka Metropolitan Planning Commission regarding the Monroe Plan.

Constance Sawyer stated that she supports the plan because the area has a lot of history.

Carolyn Brady area resident stated that she was opposed to the plan.

Frank Meade landowner in the area stated that he opposes the plan.

Doug Jones, member of the Historical Society stated that he supports the plan because the area is too close to the interstate and the railroad tracks for people to build homes.

Andre Mehrens business owner in the area stated that he is opposed to the downzoning because it would limit business expansion possibilities.

Bob Sherburne stated growth only happens when people have options to improve their property.

Scott Teeter stated that he has two sons enrolled in the Magnet School and supports the plan and believes it represents the best compromise. However, he is concerned with the safety and attractiveness of the area around the school.

Joseph Ledbetter stated that he opposes the plan except Zoning Case No. Z03/38. He believes that the plan will drive out businesses because they cannot expand.

Howard Blackman stated that he opposes the plan because the businesses generate most of the revenue from the area.

John Huffman, business owner on Kansas Avenue stated that he has buyers for his property located on 21st and Kansas Avenue however, he cannot get them to commit because the zoning is undecided. He also stated that he would appreciate a decision as soon as possible on the matter.

Each Councilmember declared exparte communications including numerous personal conversations with area residents, email, telephone conversations, and written correspondence.

Councilmember Alcala moved to approve the plan. The motion seconded by Councilmember Pomeroy failed. Councilmembers Chanler, Nave, Haynes, Duffy, Preisner and Price voted "no". (3-6-0)

Brenden Long, City Attorney stated that it would be difficult to legally support the Monroe zoning cases if approved, because the plan was denied.
Councilmember Pomeroy stated that he would prefer to remand the zoning cases back to the Planning Commission so they can work on a new neighborhood plan.

Councilmember Stubbs stated that the zoning cases should be disapproved because it will be at least a year or more before a new plan is established, and it would be inconsiderate to make the business owners wait for a decision to be made.

Councilmember Duffy stated that whatever decision is made the business owners in the area should be aware of the fact that the zoning may change.
