AFTER THE MEETING was called to order, Councilmember Alcala provided the invocation.

THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE was recited by those present in the chamber.

Councilmember Gray recognized the members of Boy Scout Troop No. 11.

Daniel R. Stanley, Interim City Manager provided a statement relating to the recent public discussions concerning the prosecution of misdemeanor court cases, including domestic violence cases. He stated he understands Chad Taylor, Shawnee County District Attorney has the discretion not to prosecute misdemeanor court cases; however, Mr. Taylor has no authority to direct where the cases are prosecuted, and in what manner. He noted the cases are of great concern to him because they include cases of domestic violence which are extraordinarily sensitive and require family services. He reported there are approximately 1,200 to 1,900 cases annually with each taking between 3 and 18 months to prosecute successfully; cases are very costly because state statute requires a “must arrest” and “must incarcerate” for any case with probable cause of domestic violence costing the City $72.00 per day to house a person at the Shawnee County Jail. He also stated domestic violence cases are considered a circle of violence and often are precursor to murder cases if not interrupted. He reported the City does not have sufficient funding, training or staffing to prosecute domestic violence cases. He provided a brief summary of Municipal Court case filings for FY2010 and FY2011, as well as, the standard operations of Municipal Court and noted thus far, the Shawnee County District Attorney has returned 30 misdemeanor cases committed in city limits. He stated this is an immediate issue that must be addressed and he is working on options to present to the Governing Body to discuss in a work session next week.

Councilmember Gray asked why the initial date of December 31, 2011 was not upheld in regards to the City beginning to prosecute misdemeanor cases.

Daniel R. Stanley reported that he was informed by District Attorney Taylor the action was a direct result of severe budget cuts in the amount of over $300,000 forcing him to realign priorities. He noted the District Attorney would follow through with the prosecution of approximately 400 misdemeanor cases that have been previously accepted by the District Attorney’s office.

Councilmember Everhart stated it was her understanding that several other large cities prosecute misdemeanor cases. She asked staff to research how other cities handle the situation and present the information to the Council at the work session next week for discussion.

Councilmember Hiller commented on the types of services that have been developed by Shawnee County in order to successfully prosecute domestic violence cases including, prosecutors, family services and various court services for support and counseling.

Councilmember Ortiz asked if the applicant was required to acknowledge if a conviction had been expunged.

JaLynn Copp stated there has been no criminal activity that has appeared on Mr. Geyer’s record since 2002; an applicant must disclose if a conviction has been expunged; and she is not sure the applicant would have received approval if he disclosed the information because she is not involved in the final approval process. She noted it is very important for applicants to be truthful and disclose any information requested on the application.

Robert R. Geyer stated he was informed by his attorney he did not have to disclose the information in regards to the conviction being expunged, and that is why he did not disclose the requested information.

Councilmember Alcala spoke in support of the resolution and stated all Neighborhood Improvement Associations work hard to become eligible for funding; however, fairness should be reviewed and neighborhoods need to be addressed.

Mayor Bunten stated there is always a difference of opinion on which neighborhoods have the most critical needs; however, the Citizen Advisory Council selects two neighborhoods to concentrate on improving and getting the attention they need.
