

ROMANS: PART 69
MARCH 23, 1997

Oh Jerusalem, Jerusalem!
Romans 11:1-10

The Context: Has The Word of God (to save the Jews) failed? Rom 9:1-5

1. Ans. #1: No, God Never Determined To Save All Jews. Rom 9:6-24
2. Ans. #2: No, God Never Said He'd Save All Jews. Rom 9:23-33
3. Ans. #3: The Jews Failure To Believe Was Their Own Fault. Rom 10:1-21

ANSWER #4: God's Rejection Of The Jews Is Only Partial. Rom 11:1-10

Proofs That God Has Not Totally Rejected The Jews. Romans 11:1-6

1. Question #1: Did God reject His people? NO! Not totally. Vs 1a
2. Proof that His rejection is only partial. Vs 1b-6
  - ◆ Personal: God saved Paul -- He is a Jew
  - ◆ Theological: God won't reject Jews whom He foreknew -- IE Those He chose. Jer 33:19ff
  - ◆ Historical: God has sovereignly preserved a remnant even in the worst of times -- E.G. The 7000 in Elijah's day. 1 Ki 19:1-18
  - ◆ Contemporary: God has a remnant whom He has presently chosen -- by grace!

Paul's Evaluation of The Jew's Spiritual State: Then & Now. Romans 11:7-10

1. Israel failed to obtain the righteousness it sought through works.
  - ◆ But those chosen out of Israel (Lit. the election) did obtain it by grace.
  - ◆ The rest of Israel was, and continues to be, hardened.
2. God foretold of this partial hardening in Deut 29:4 & Psm 69:22,23

| Those hardened(given over)                  | Those chosen(drawn by God)   |
|---|--|
| Given a spirit of stupor (sleep)                | Made alive by the Spirit.Jn 5:21; Eph 2:4,5                                  |
| Eyes & ears darkened                            | Enabled to understand.Gal 1:15,16; Acts 16:14                                |
| Ensnared by their table(system of religion) | Set free from previous bias & brought to ChristII Tim 1:19; 2:24,25; Jn 6:44 |
| Encumbered forever                              | Unencumbered forever through ChristMt 11:28ff; Isa 55:1-3,6-7,12.            |

Application.

1. Beware of Anti-Semitism: If God has not totally rejected Israel, neither should we.
2. Realize the Bible is true: No person could have guessed the history of Israel
3. Stand In Awe of God's Sovereignty: He rules over every part of history!!
4. Rejoice that you are saved: God's Grace broke through your:
  - ◆ fallen place in Adam
  - ◆ personal sin & rebellion against God
  - ◆ separation from God as a Gentile
5. Come To Christ Today: Do not harden your hearts when He calls, lest He give you over.
