Call to Worship

Psalm 100:1-5

Leader:

Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth!
Serve the LORD with gladness!
Come into his presence with singing!
Know that the LORD, he is God!
It is he who made us, and we are his;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
and his courts with praise!
Give thanks to him; bless his name!
For the LORD is good;
his steadfast love endures forever,
and his faithfulness to all generations.

Confession of Sin

Congregation:

Lord God, Maker of Heaven and Earth,
We are grateful that you know us and call us your children in Christ Jesus.
Even though you have shown us deep mercy and lavish grace, we still sin against you.

We sin by seeking to hold you accountable to our standards of justice and love instead of trusting that you define justice and love.

We sin by breaking your good and holy law believing that we are wiser than you.

We sin by falling short of your perfect righteousness.

We confess these and our many sins to you in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Hebrews 10:19-23

Leader:

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that He opened for us through the curtain, that is, through His flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

Today we worship our God through the celebration of Communion (also called The Lord's Table and The Lord's Supper). We are so glad you are here to celebrate with us whether this is your first time or you've been here for a long time.

We welcome all members of this body who have examined themselves, confessed their sin to God and sought His forgiveness through the cross of Jesus. We also recognize that Christ gathers His people across all human divisions; therefore, you need not be a Presbyterian or a member of this church to participate. If you have professed Christ publicly, have been baptized and committed yourself to membership with any gospel-proclaiming church, you are welcome to partake of the bread and cup. If this does not describe you, then we encourage you to take this time to pray—to talk to God. If you've never prayed before or don't think you know how to pray, we have some prayers written out below.

Every church body practices communion in slightly different ways. We want to include you in how we celebrate.

- A pastor will instruct the congregation on the practice of communion and those who are eligible to participate (see above).
- While being led in worship, the congregation remains seated.
- Communion servers will pass the bread and the juice down each row while everyone remains seated. A gluten-free option is available in the wooden trays. Alert a server if you need a gluten-free option.
- We will eat the bread and drink the cup together as the pastor instructs the congregation to partake.
- Juice cups are then collected by the servers.

Prayer of Those Who Are Searching for Truth:

Lord Jesus Christ, You claim to be the Way, the Truth and the Life (John 14:6). Grant that the cost of following You might not hinder me from considering the reasons I should. If Your claims are true, nothing rivals Your words. Guide, teach, and open to me who You are. Give me coherent and convincing understanding that satisfies my deepest needs. Lead me toward the everlasting life with You and Your people that You promise (1 John 1:1-4). Amen.

Prayer Crying out to God for New Life:

Lord Jesus Christ, I am weaker, more rebellious toward God, than I've ever admitted. Yet You offer acceptance greater than I've ever dared to hope. I admit my need for a new kind of life—Your life. Thank You for making peace with You possible. You paid my sin's debt on Your cross. You took judgment meant for me; You offer forgiveness and fellowship. Believing You've been raised from the dead, I turn to seek my deepest satisfactions in You. I accept You as God and Ruler. I receive You as Savior and Life. Needing You always, I begin to rest upon You for forgiveness, for growth in trusting You, for Your love toward neighbors. Increase my longing for the new heaven and new earth You will bring when You return. Amen.

Grace Changes Everything meets in Sanctuary, taught by Pastor Todd Pruitt | Early in the seventeenth century the Reformed faith hung in the balance. A popular movement led by students of the theology professor Jacob Arminius were arguing for a version of the faith which departed sharply from the rich inheritance gained from such men as Augustine (5th century) and the Protestant Reformers of the sixteenth century. Their theological innovations took the form of a document which specifically refuted five key points of doctrine affirmed both in Scripture and by the Protestant Reformers. Such a challenge demanded a response. From 1618–1619 the Dutch Reformed Church convened a special synod in the town of Dordrecht (Netherlands) and crafted a thorough response: The Canons of Dordt. This document not only refuted the five points of Arminianism, but it established the pastoral implications of the Scriptures' remarkable teachings concerning the gracious nature of salvation by grace alone through faith alone. This study will cover the history, explore the biblical foundations, and apply the comforting truths of the Doctrines of Grace.

Welcome to Covenant (Membership Class) meets in Multi-Purpose Room West, taught by Pastor Burress McCombe | Scripture makes it clear that church membership is an invaluable facet of life in Christ's kingdom. If you're a Christian, then it is vital to belong to a local church, and we pray that you will take this next step. While taking this class does not bind you to membership, it is the first step toward becoming a member. If you have questions about the class, contact Sarah Plonsky (sarahp@cov-pres.org).

All Nations Class meets in the Library, facilitated by several members including Kellie Grathwol, Deb Grathwol, and Jeremy Samsoe | This class provides a welcoming environment to connect across language and cultural differences as we visit, read the Scripture passage, pray together, and have open discussion.

Through the Roof Adults meets in W-10, led by members Linda Krause, Jason Miller, and Sarah Pruett | This class provides adults affected by disability the opportunity to connect and digest God's Word in an easy-to-understand format. Join us on the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays.

Through the Roof Support Group meets in W-10, led by members Laura Flint and Sarah Pruett | This class provides parents, grandparents, and caregivers the opportunity to connect, share resources, and discuss challenges that come with living and caring for a child or adult with a disability. Join us on the 2nd and 4th Sundays.

Giving Information

Electronic Giving

We have set up online giving as a convenience for you to give on a one-time or ongoing basis. Visit our website, www.cov-pres.org, and click on "GIVE" or log on to the Church Center app to manage your donations from there. There is a feature that lets you donate to cover the processing fees charged by credit card companies. The box is automatically checked with the amount filled in. If you'd rather not add this amount to your donation, simply uncheck the box. You may also donate through the Church Center app. After you log on to the app, click on the "GIVE" button.

Online Banking - Bill Pay

Another easy and convenient way to give is to use the online bill pay feature, often available through online banking at many banks; you will need to check with your bank to verify its availability. When using this feature, request that a paper check be sent to the church office rather than an electronic check, and a check in the amount you designate will be sent directly from the bank to Covenant Presbyterian Church. Please have your bank use the following mailing address: 32 Southgate Ct., Suite 101, Harrisonburg, VA 22801
