1 Creation

Genesis 1-2

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. On each day of creation, God made a different part of the world around us.

After five days, God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds." And it was so. And God made the animals. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness. Let them rule over the fish and the birds, and over the animals." So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. God saw everything that He had made, and it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and everything that filled them. On the seventh day, God finished His work, and rested. So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy.

Noah

Genesis 6:9–9:17

The Lord saw the wickedness of man was great in the earth and all that man thought about was doing evil. But Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord, along with his three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

God said to Noah, "Make an ark. Behold I will bring a flood upon the earth to destroy all things." Noah did all God commanded.

The Lord shut Noah, his family, and the animals in the ark. Then fountains of the deep burst, and the windows of the heavens were opened and rain fell upon the earth forty days and forty nights. Only Noah and those with him were safe.

Later, God made a wind blow over the earth—the waters subsided. The ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. So Noah and his sons and his wife and his son's wives and every beast went out from the ark.

Noah built an altar to the Lord and offered burnt offerings. God told Noah and his sons, "Never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth. I have set my bow in the clouds as a sign of the covenant that I make between Me and you."
