

I told a lie.

I was walking home from school and walked through Mr. Green's pretty flowers.

I did not look where I was going.
I tripped and fell on the flowers.

Boy! Did I make a mess!

When I did not confess my sins,
I was worn out from crying all day long.

Psalm 32:3