

ABRAHAM'S BIG TEST

Genesis 12:1–22:19 for Children

Written by Becky Lockhart Kearns

Illustrated by Jack Kershner

Many years passed; Isaac grew big and strong.
Abraham knew his life truly was blessed.
But God wanted to know whom Abraham loved most,
So He put Abraham's faith to a test.

The Lord said to Abraham, "Go up on the mountain
And take your son, Isaac, along.
For there you will make a burnt offering to Me
As you sacrifice Isaac, your son."

Abraham built the altar and laid Isaac down,
And as he drew out his knife,
The Lord cried out, “Abraham, listen to Me!
Do not hurt the boy—spare his life!

“There’s no need to harm him,” God said tenderly.
“Your faith is as great as can be.
Use the ram in the bush for your sacrifice,
For you’ve proven your great love for Me!”

