Luke 2:1–20 for children

On a silent night
Came the soft moonlight,
With beauty the town to adorn.

'Twas a time so dear
With the heavens near,
When the Bethlehem Child was born.

For our God above
Sent His Son in love
To a world so lonely and lost.

And the angels told,
In the sky aglow,
How He came, not counting the cost.

The shepherds were there
In the cold night air.
They were awed to see such a sight:

The mother so mild
With her precious Child
On that glad and glorious night!
