

Tiny Baby Moses

The Story of Baby Moses in the River Nile
Exodus 1:8–22 and 2:1–10 for children

Julie Dietrich
Illustrated by Bill Clark

The princess and her servant girl
Heard a little cry.
The servant girl took one quick look—
A baby? A basket? Why?

Miriam set the basket afloat,
Then hid right near the water.
She spied some others coming close,
One looked like Pharaoh's daughter.

Saved by the Father's lasting love,
God would call this boy some day—
To lead His people and serve God,
To follow and obey.

God saves us, too, through His dear Son—
From sin we have been freed.
Like Moses, we are also called—
To serve, obey, and lead.

