

The Story of Creation

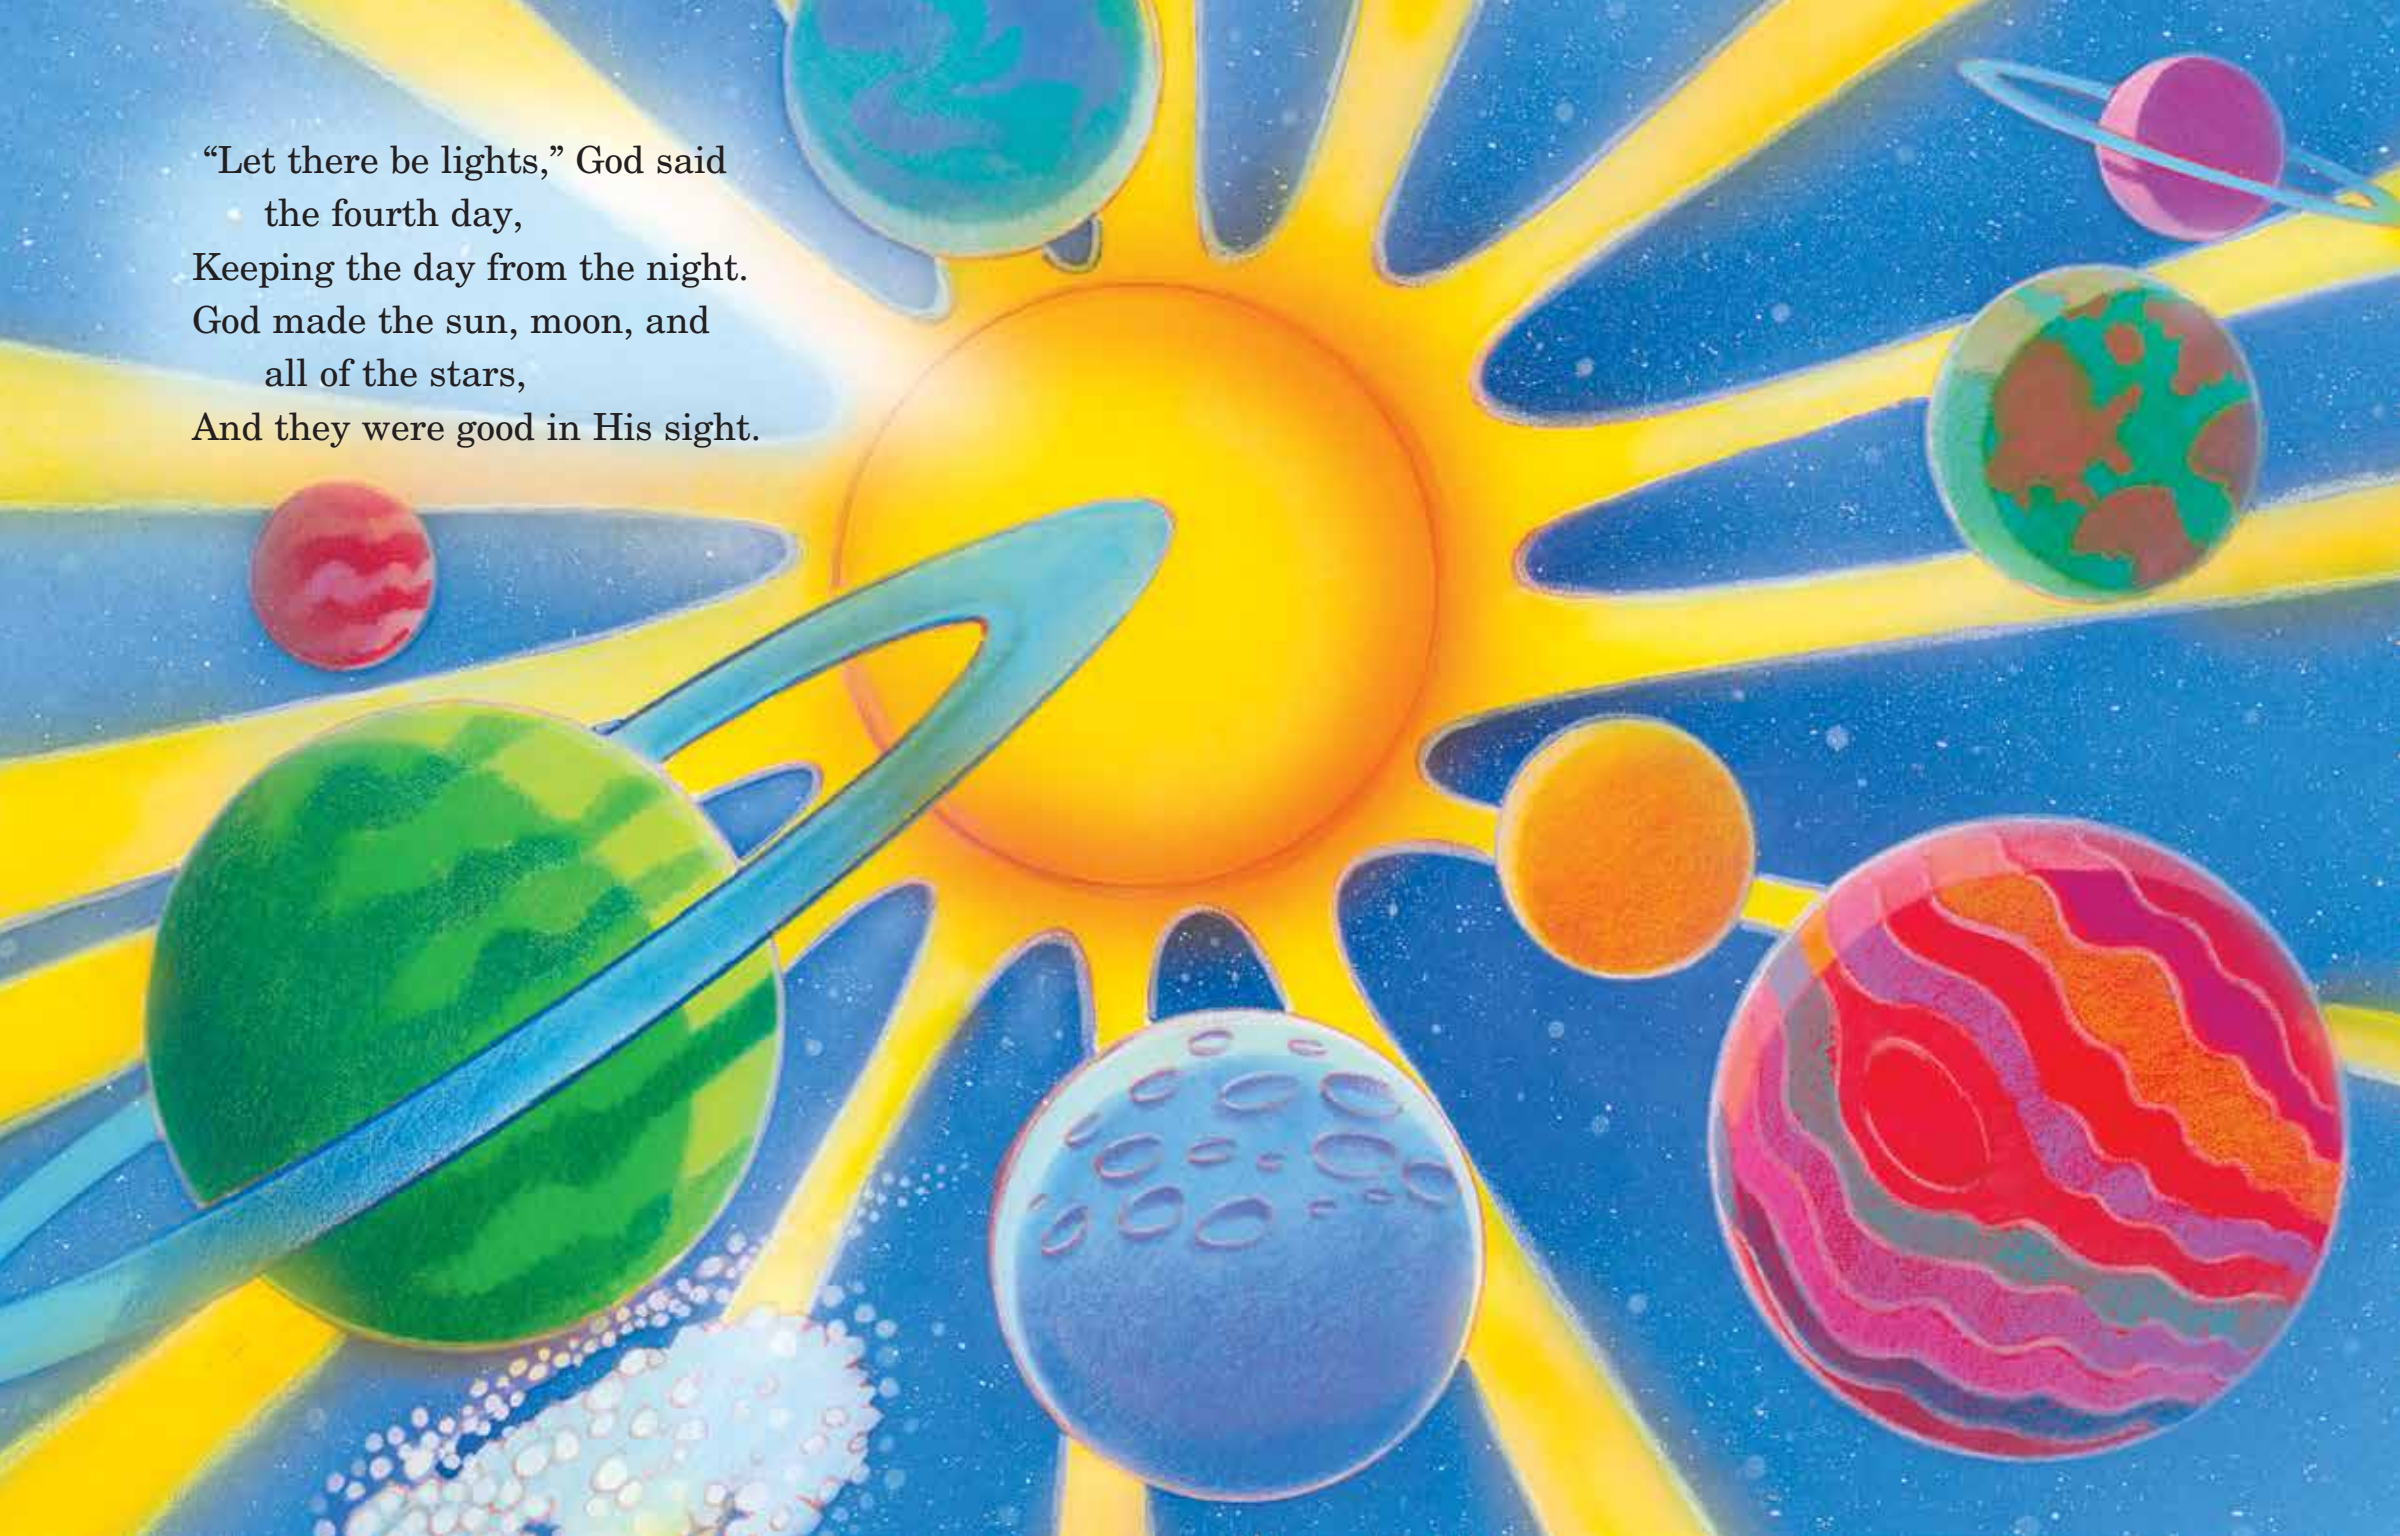

Genesis 1–2 for children

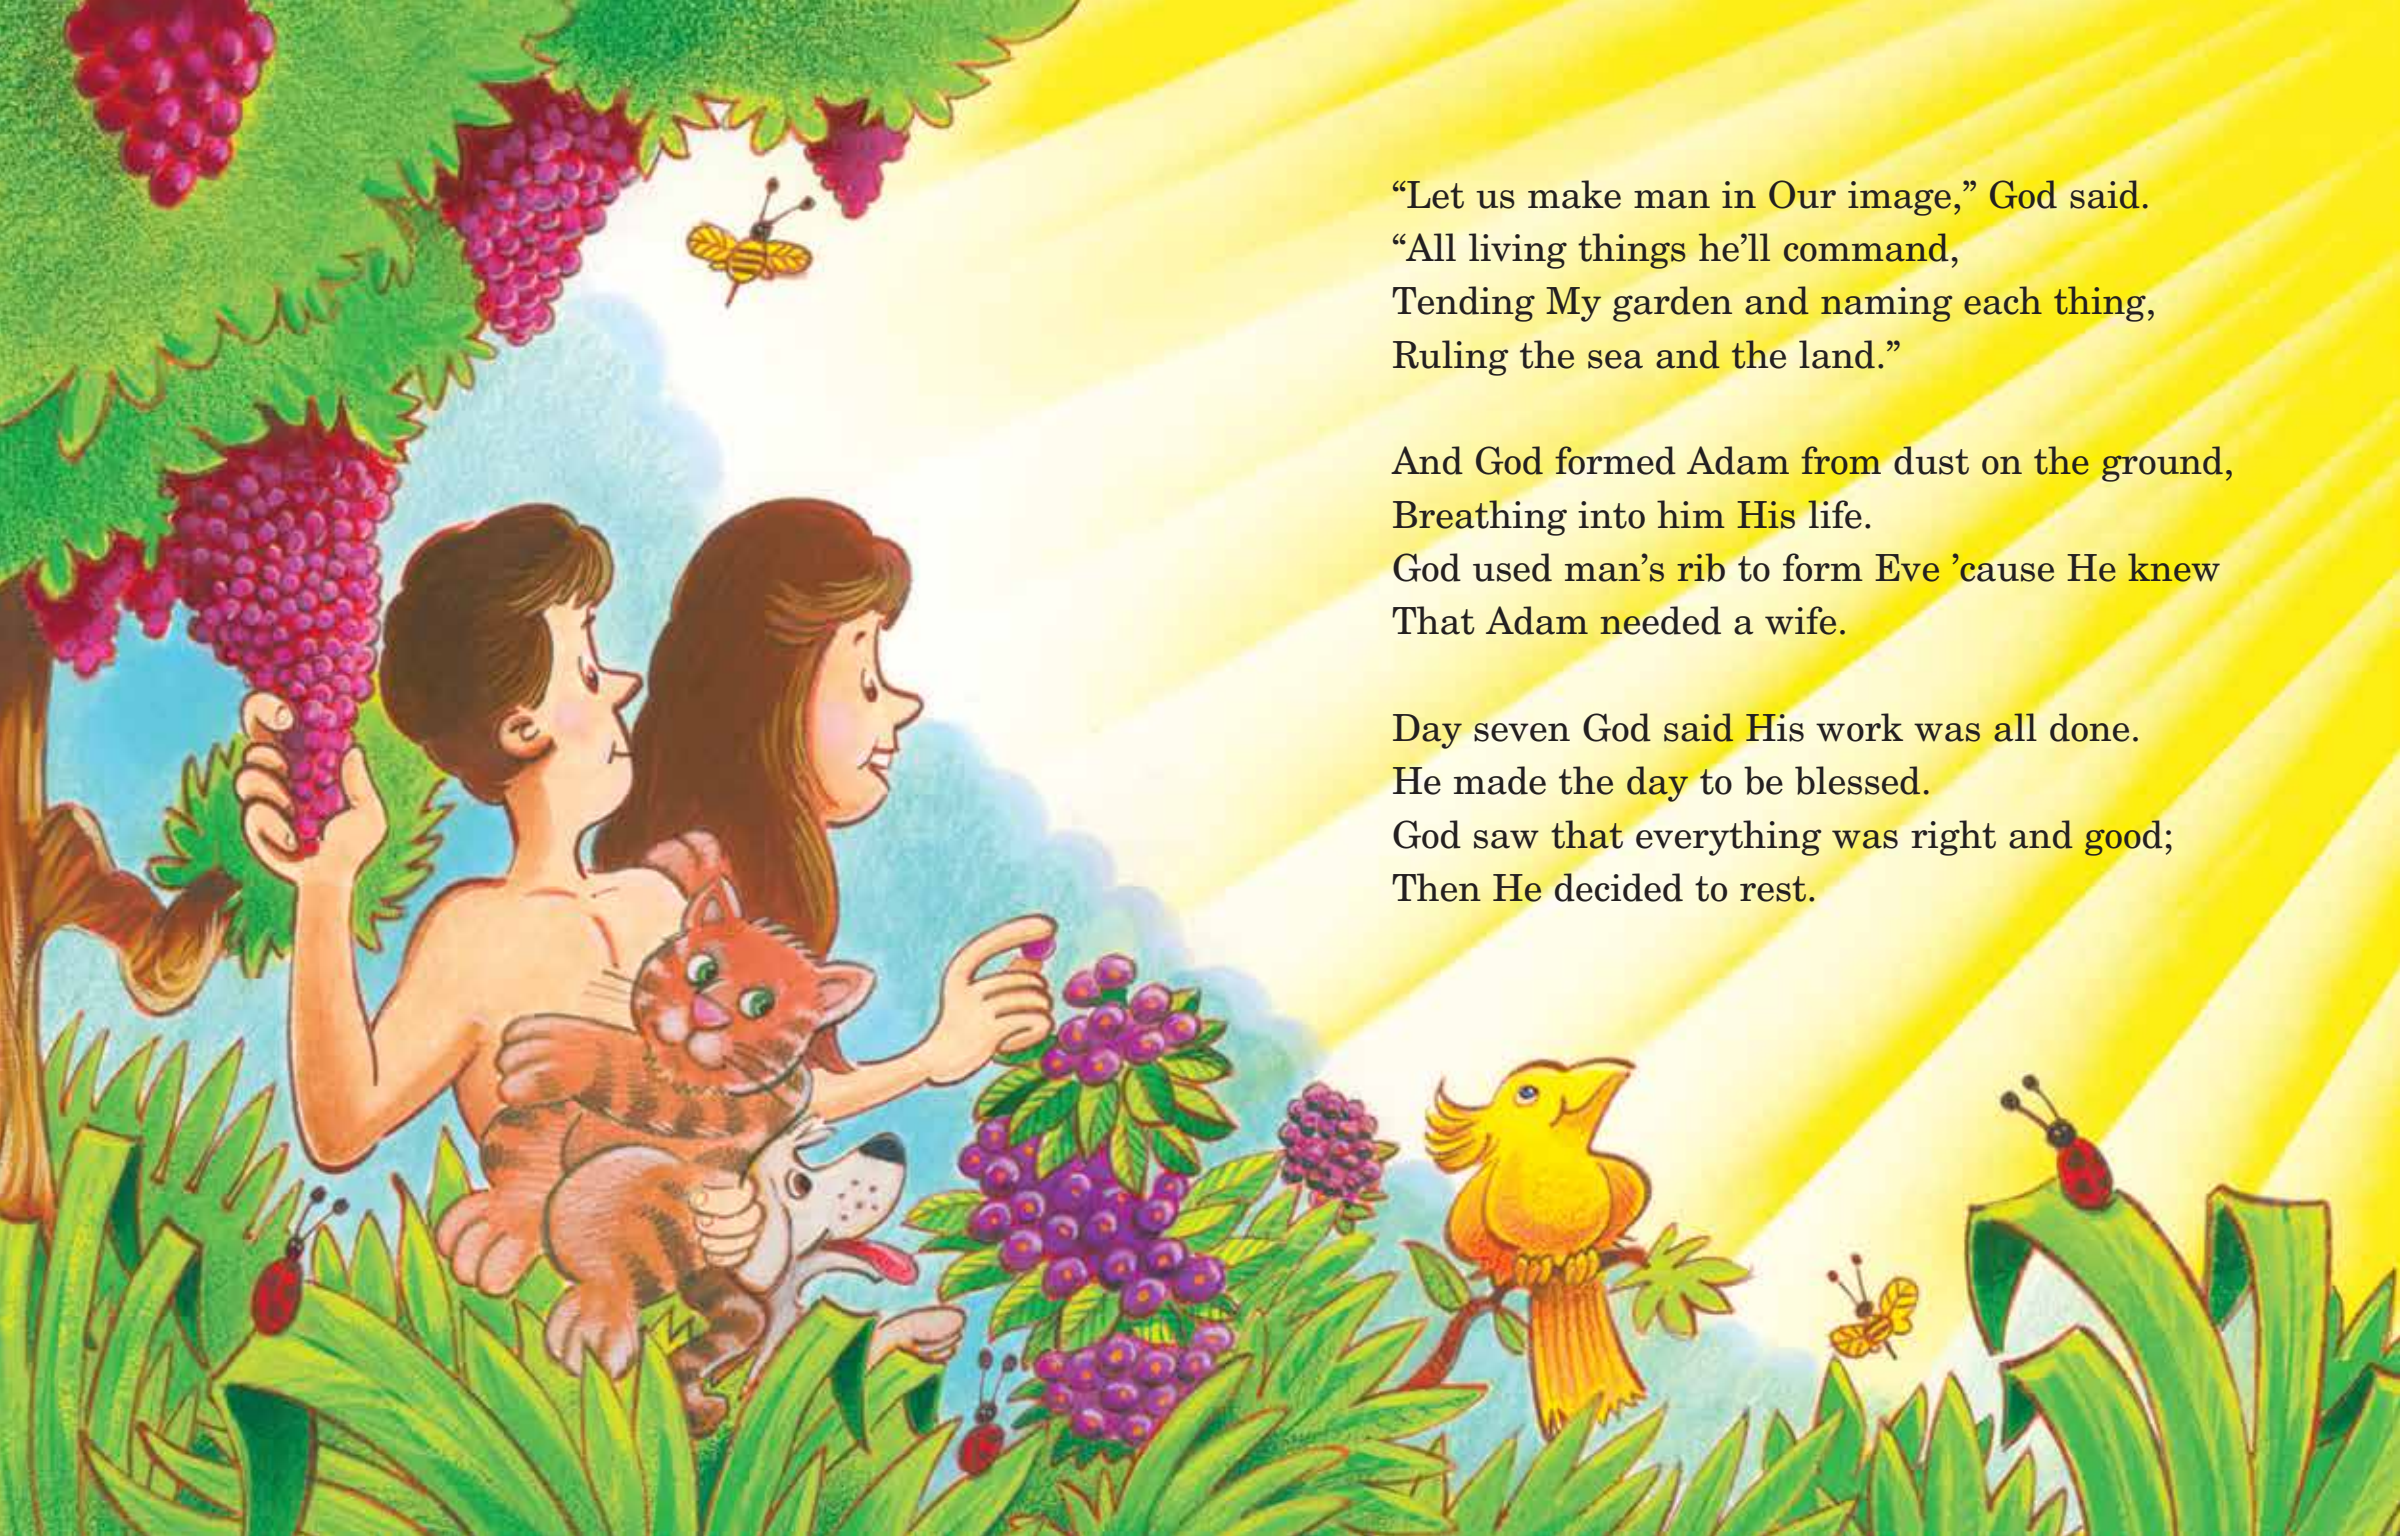

Written by Beth Atchison

Illustrated by Ed Koehler

“Let there be lights,” God said
the fourth day,
Keeping the day from the night.
God made the sun, moon, and all of the stars,
And they were good in His sight.

“Let us make man in Our image,” God said.
“All living things he’ll command,
Tending My garden and naming each thing,
Ruling the sea and the land.”

And God formed Adam from dust on the ground,
Breathing into him His life.
God used man’s rib to form Eve ’cause He knew
That Adam needed a wife.

Day seven God said His work was all done.
He made the day to be blessed.
God saw that everything was right and good;
Then He decided to rest.