

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

Acts 2:1–41 for children

Written by Robert Baden
Illustrated by Reg Sandland

When Jesus left the grave alive
That first great Easter Day
He told the friends that loved Him so
That soon He'd go away.

“Then you, My friends, must tell the world
My story—all must hear it.
To give you power to do this job,
I'm sending you God's Spirit.”

Then Jesus went back home to heaven,
And His friends felt sad and lost.
But He sent the Spirit like He said
On the day called Pentecost.

“But three days later He arose—
Alive, no longer dead!
His death has washed away your sin.
Come, follow Him instead!”

The people heard what Peter said
And asked him what to do.
“Turn from your sins and be baptized;
God’s calling each of you!”