

Jesus and the Woman at the Well

John 4:1–42 for children

Written by Melinda Busch
Illustrated by Bill Clark

Jesus and His followers
Had stopped along their way,
While traveling through Samaria
That hot and dusty day.

The disciples left the Master
To sit and rest a spell.
They went on to buy some food;
He sat down near a well.

“The water that I offer,
You neither see nor swallow,
It’s for the soul instead of lips—
You need only follow.”

“But Sir, I am a sinner.
Can God still want me now?”

“I know, my child, what you’ve done.
I forgive you anyhow.”

She said, “You are a prophet.
When will Messiah come,
Who will tell us everything?”

He said, “I am that One.”

