

Zacchaeus

Luke 19:1–10 for children

Written by Loyal A. Kolbrek
Illustrated by James Needham

Zacchaeus gathered taxes
From people low and high.
The way he lived,
he seemed to be
A very wealthy guy.

He wasn't very nice, you see.
(He was also very short.)
Zacchaeus had no friends at all;
They didn't like his sort.

At home he turned to Jesus
And said, "I want to share
Half of my possessions
With those who need some care.

"And if I've cheated anyone,
I'll pay him four times more.
People here will see I've changed
From what I was before."

