

Saul's Conversion

Acts 9:1-22; 21:1-22:21 for children

Written by Eric Bohnet

Illustrated by Marcy Ramsey

They call me the apostle Paul,
I'm sitting here in jail
for telling folks about God's love,
and how it never fails.

It's not much fun to be in jail,
but I'll get through all right.
I'll forgive those who put me here.
Yes, you did hear me right.

For I learned well there is no sin
that God will not forgive.
Christ Jesus bore our punishment;
He died so we can live.

In three days Ananias came,
the Christian Jesus sent.
He baptized me and healed my eyes
When I told him I'd repent.

A message from the Lord he gave,
"Go out and tell all men."
Not just the Jews, but everyone must hear that Christ saves them.

