One mournful Friday afternoon
Outside the city wall,
The Son of God was crucified
For sinners one and all.

By Jewish law, each Friday was
The day all work must cease
Before the Saturday of rest
To hear God's Word of peace.

On this sad Friday, Jesus died.
He finished everything
The Father sent Him here to do.
Hosanna to our King!

The week is done! Salvation's won!
In Sunday morning light
The Son of God rose from the dead.
Oh, what a joyous sight!

Your Lord's great work of suffering
Was taken up for you.
You now possess the gift of life
Because His work is through.
