

Paul's Great Basket Caper

Paul's Escape from Damascus

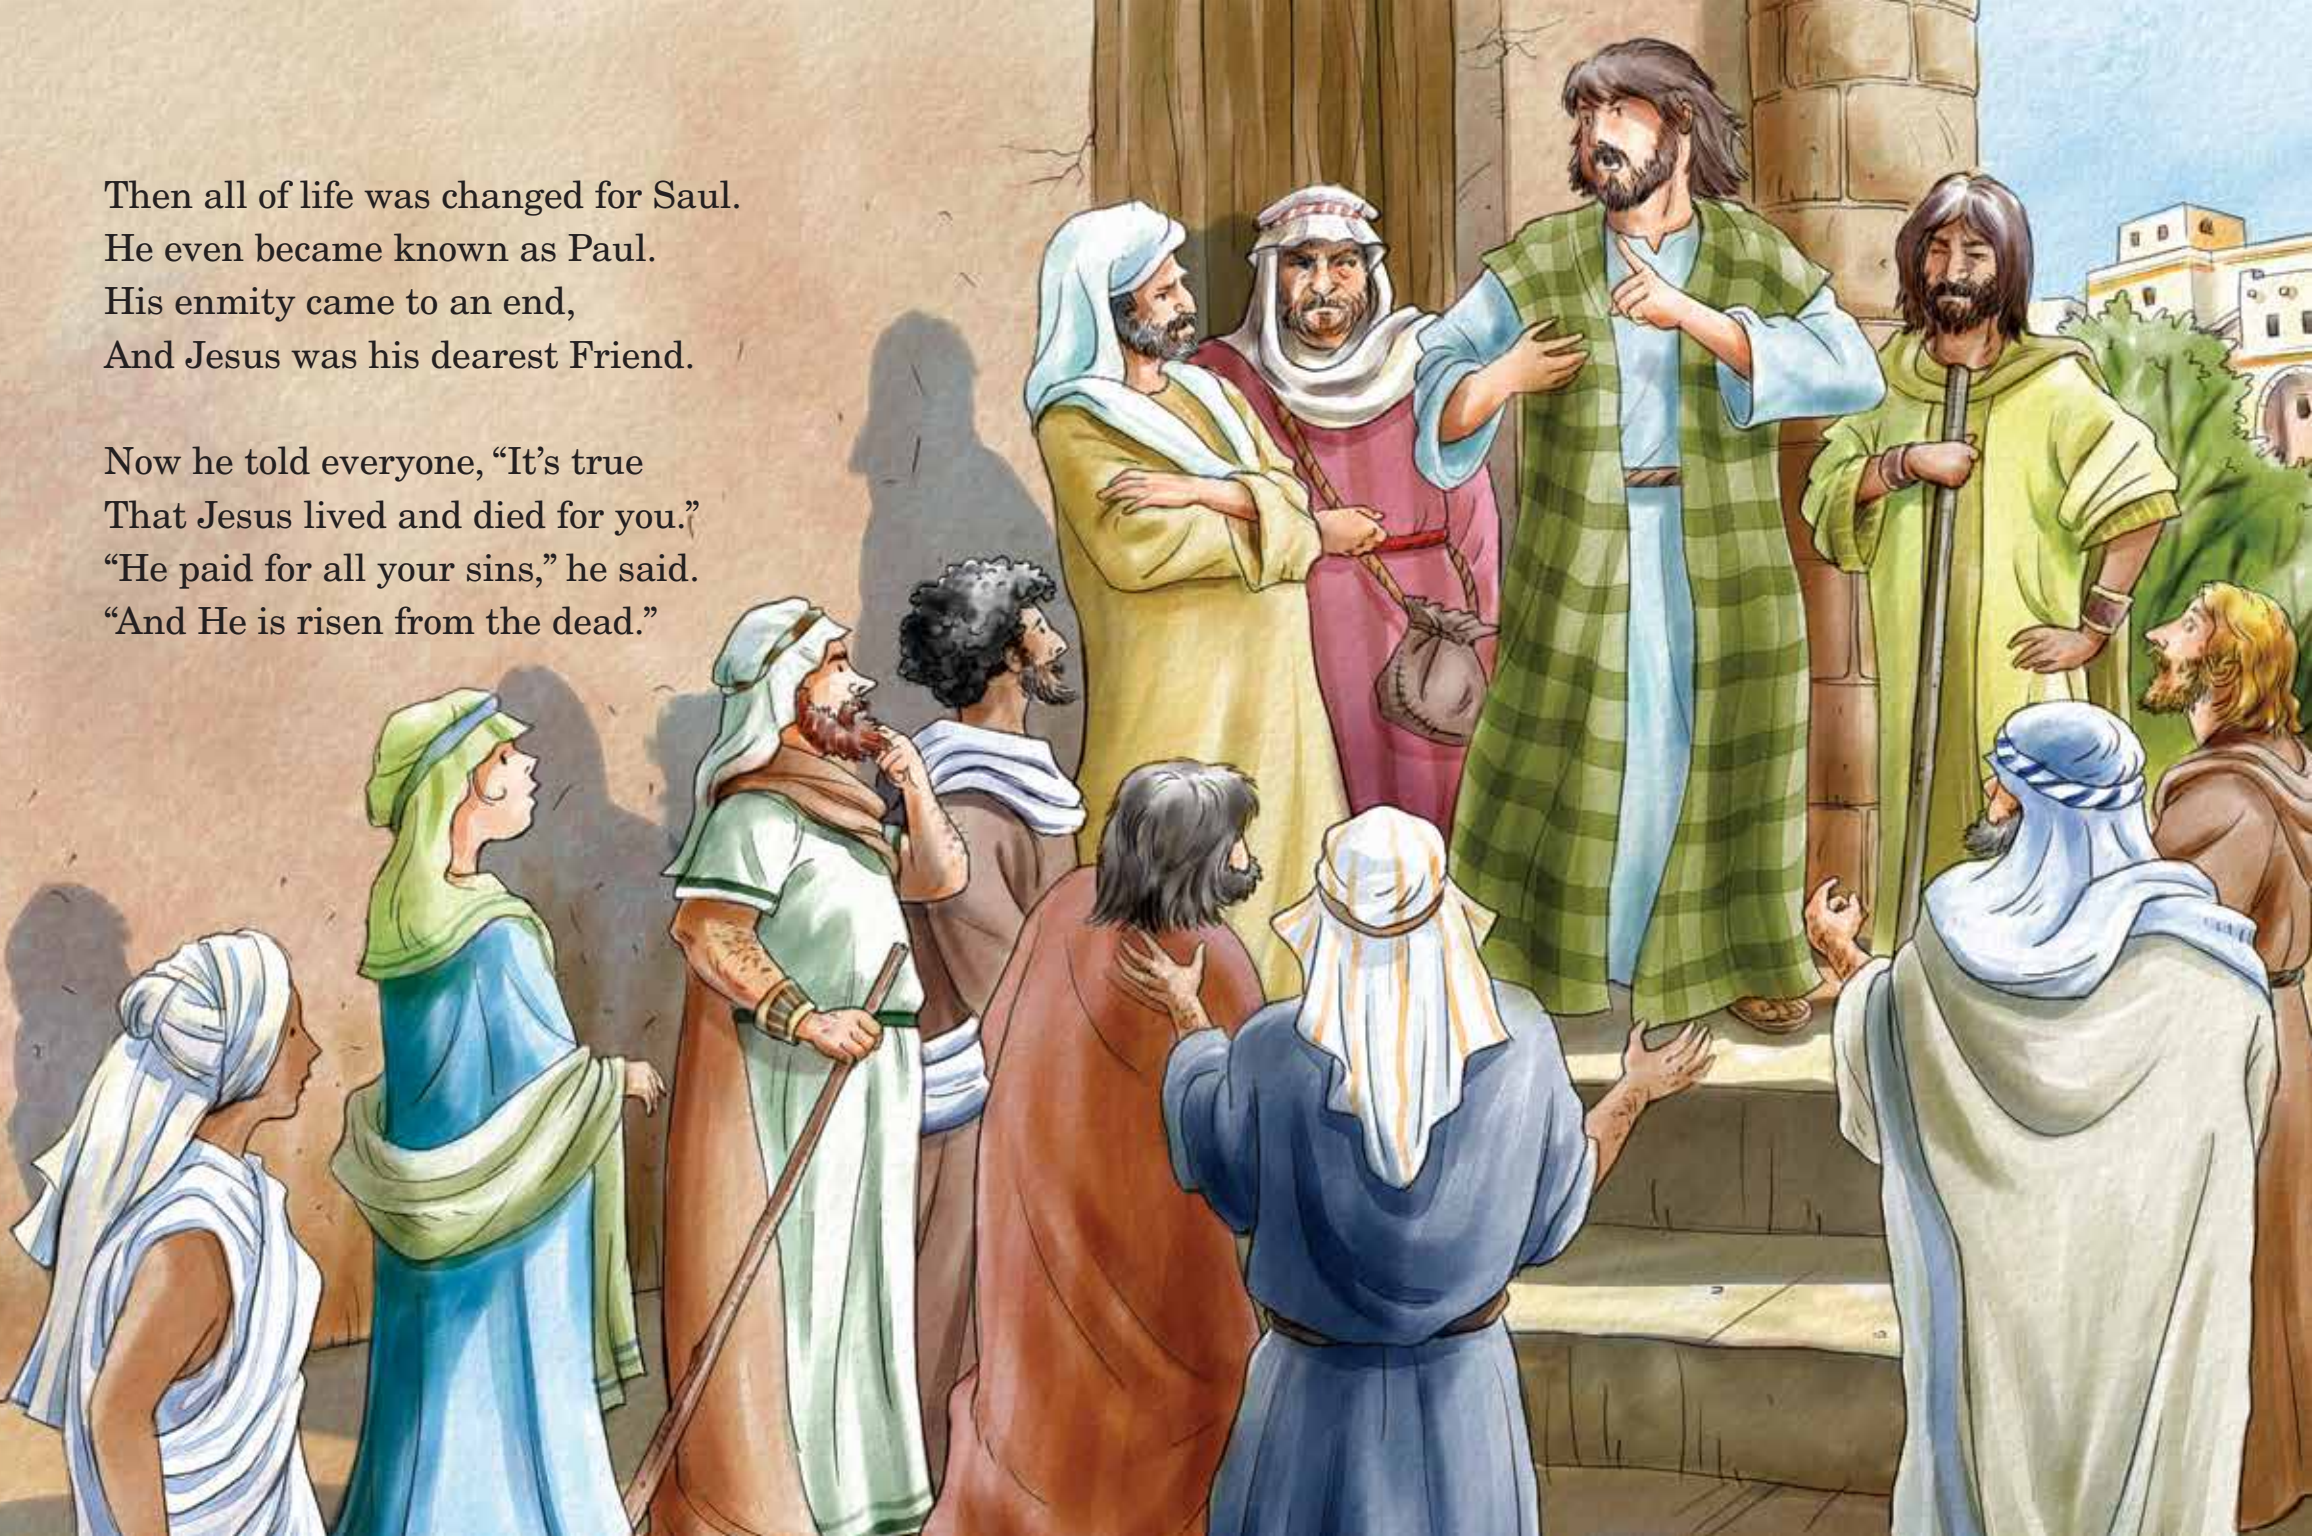

Acts 9:1–25, 31 for Children

Written by Larry Burgdorf

Illustrated by Dave Hill

Then all of life was changed for Saul.
He even became known as Paul.
His enmity came to an end,
And Jesus was his dearest Friend.

Now he told everyone, "It's true
That Jesus lived and died for you."
"He paid for all your sins," he said.
"And He is risen from the dead."

Paul headed for Jerusalem,
But first he had to get by them.
He chose a most unusual way
To leave Damascus on that day.

His friends brought ropes, both stout and long;
They got a basket, big and strong.
Into the basket they put Paul
And let him down outside the wall.

Think what a basketful that was!
It was so critical because
God mightily then used this man
To carry out His mission plan.

