And so the Twelve made plans to meet,
The Passover was near.
A final meal with Christ they'd eat;
His lessons they would hear.

And at this final meal, our Lord
Served them the wine and bread.
"This is My body and My blood,"
To them our Savior said.

They placed Him high upon a cross
And pierced His side with spear.
They placed a sign above His head,
And loudly they did jeer.

The sky turned dark when Jesus died;
He suffered with great pain.
He bore the sins of all that day,
Our home in heav'n to gain.
