

THE SHEPHERDS SHOOK IN THEIR SHOES

Luke 2 for Children

Written by Michelle Medlock Adams
Illustrated by Dana Regan

CONCORDIA PUBLISHING HOUSE • SAINT LOUIS

One night while shepherds did their jobs
And watched their sheep with care,
An angel of the Lord appeared
And gave them quite a scare!

The shepherds' hearts were full of fear.
They shook right in their shoes!
But then the angel called to them,
“Fear not, I’ve got good news!”

The shepherds didn’t speak a word.
The sheep were quiet too.
They tried to “fear not” like he said,
But that was hard to do.

And then at last, they saw the Babe.
Their hearts were filled with joy.
They knew He was the precious Christ—
Not just a baby boy.

The shepherds left the holy place
And shared the news abroad.
They said, “We saw the King of kings!
We saw the Son of God!”

