

Jesus Heals the Centurion's Servant

Matthew 8:5–13
for Children

Written by Joanne Bader
Illustrated by Jenny Williams

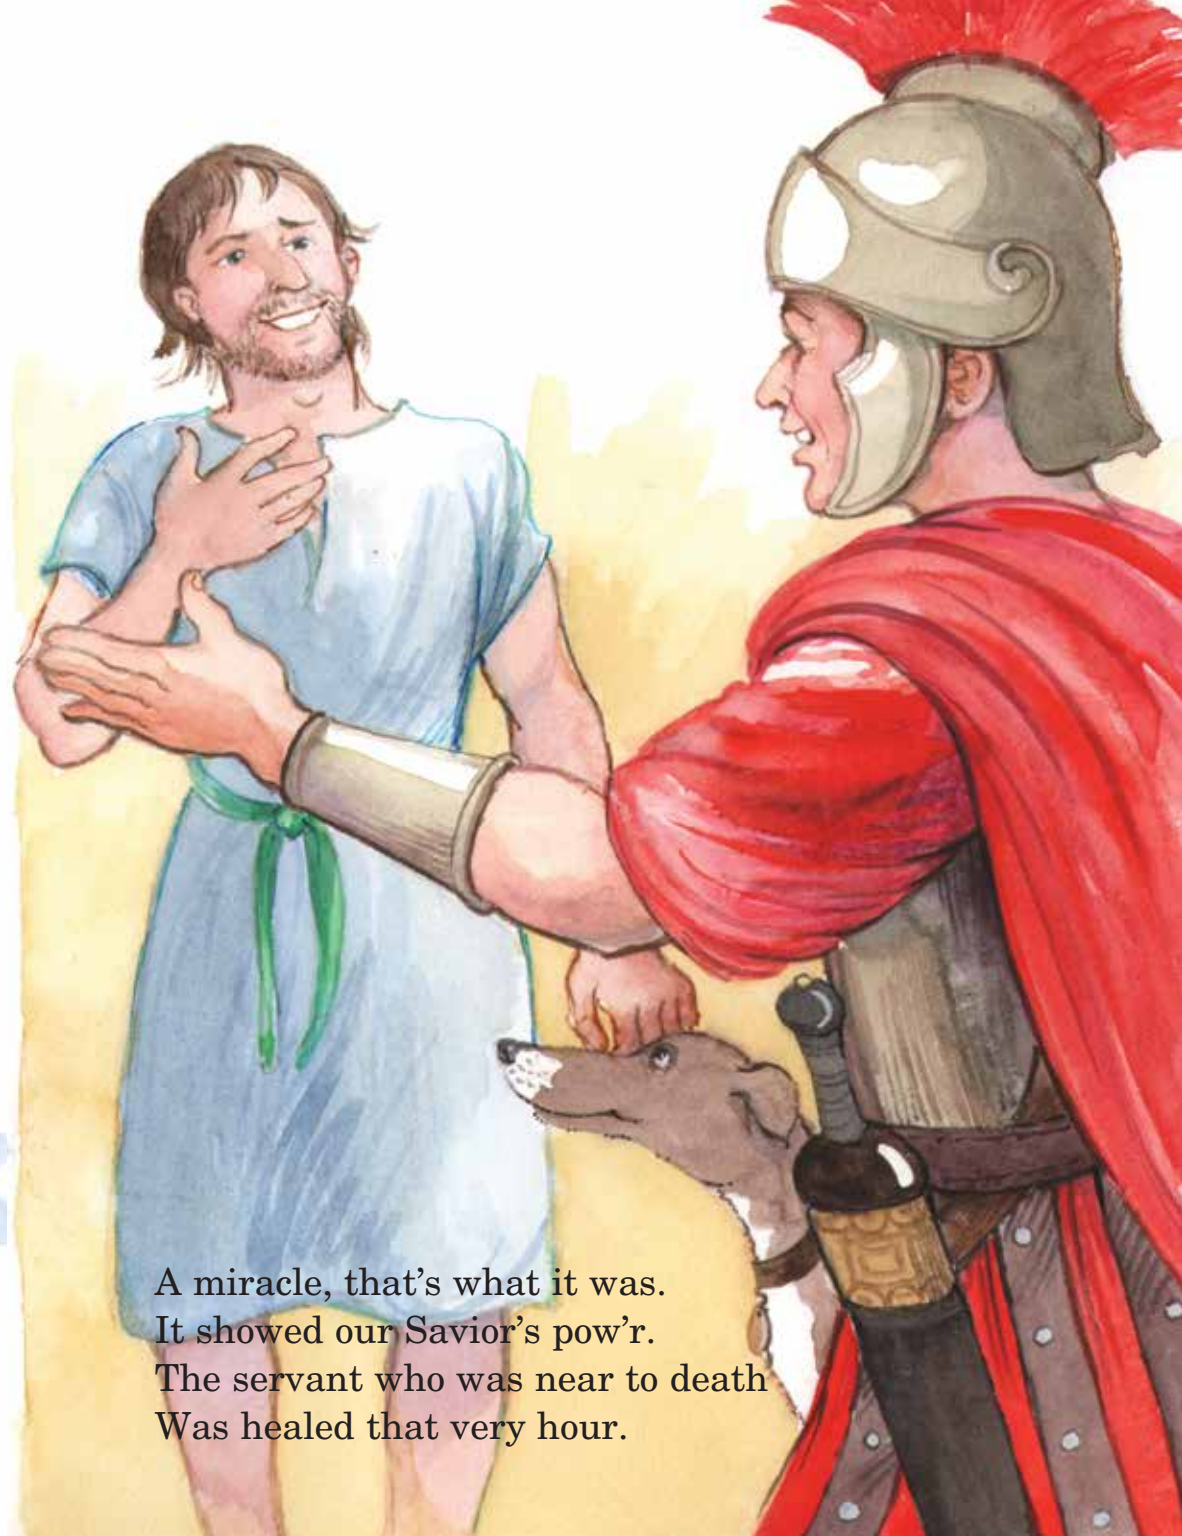

So the captain went to Jesus
And humbly begged of Him,
“Dear Lord, my servant is so sick,
The outlook is quite grim.

“The man is paralyzed,” he cried,
“And suffering terribly.”
He knew that Jesus would be kind
And listen to his plea.

When the centurion went home,
The news he heard was good.
His trusted servant had been healed
As Jesus said he would!

A miracle, that's what it was.
It showed our Savior's pow'r.
The servant who was near to death
Was healed that very hour.