

Ezekiel

and the Dry Bones

Ezekiel 37:1–14 for children

Written by Jeffrey E. Burkart
Illustrated by Kathy Mitter

CONCORDIA PUBLISHING HOUSE • SAINT LOUIS

For the hand of the Lord was upon me;
The Spirit of God brought me out.
And I stood in the midst of a valley
Much drier than dry from a drought.

Then there in the middle of that hollow
Were found a great number of bones.
Those pale bones were all brittle and sallow
And parched as the dry valley stones.

Then the Lord said, "Now what's your opinion;
Son of man, can bones live again?"
Then I said, "Sovereign Lord, You've dominion.
Only You can know where or when."

