

Oh, Holy Night!

Luke 2:1-20 for children

Written by Joan Petersen Tietz

Illustrated by Johanna van der Sterre

CONCORDIA PUBLISHING HOUSE • SAINT LOUIS

A crowded night, a holy night,
Demands for inns were huge.
No room for Mary and Joseph,
A stable their refuge.

Exciting night, a holy night,
The shepherds ran so fast
To find the baby boy—a king.
Their Lord is born at last!

A promised night, a holy night,
God's present to the earth,
A birth announcement for a king
Proclaimed our Savior's birth!

An awesome night, a holy night,
He came to set us free.
He died upon the wooden cross:
His death, our victory!

