

The Christmas Angels

The story of angels at Christmas
Matthew 1–2 and Luke 1–2 for children

Written by Sara Hartman

Illustrated by Linda Graves

Joseph, a hardworking carpenter,
Had planned to make Mary his wife.
But when he heard the news of the baby,
It upset his plans for their life.

As Joseph slept that night, God's angel
Then told him, "Do not be afraid;
Mary's child is of God. Name Him Jesus.
He is God's promise, so long ago made."

A bright star led Wise Men from the East
On a search for the King of the Jews.
They met wicked King Herod on the way,
Who felt threatened by their strange news.

The Wise Men found Jesus in Bethlehem,
Bowed down, and gave gifts from their packs.
Though they had pledged to report to Herod,
They followed a different route back.

