In such a world where butterflies
Enjoy a flower's bloom,
It seems so wrong when someone dies
And rests inside a tomb.

Is this the way that God had planned—
That life would have to end?
It's just so hard to understand
Why we would lose a friend.

The Bible teaches that the Lord
Made all things right and good.
But all went wrong when we declined
To listen as we should . . .

Our God created all the things:
The stars, the fish, the trees,
The angels, people, birds with wings,
The flowers, and the bees.

But God's first people sinned and broke
The one rule He had made.
The Father found them, and He spoke:
"You both have disobeyed."

The whole world suffered under sin!
Now there was death and pain.
Our hearts were dirty from within;
We could not wash the stain.
