

THE NAMES OF JESUS

The story of Jesus' birth based on Isaiah 9:6–7; 60:1–6; Matthew 2:1–12;
and Luke 1 and 2, for children.

Written by Lisa M. Clark
Illustrated by Ian Dale

CONCORDIA PUBLISHING HOUSE • SAINT LOUIS

In ancient days so long ago, the Lord proclaimed His plan:
The Son of God would someday come and be the Son of Man.
He told Isaiah to write down some special names to learn
So we would know our Savior and the freedom He would earn.

So Wonderful this Counselor would be for all below;
Our Mighty God would come and live with us, His grace to show.
Our Prince of Peace would put an end to all our sin and pain
Till we would everlasting see our Father rule and reign.

The people waited for so long for to meet this promised One
Until an angel shared the news of God the Father's Son.
The angel said to Mary, "You are favored by the Lord,
For you will bear the Son of God, whom angels have adored.

"The baby you will love and raise will have a special name,
For Jesus means 'the Lord will save,' and this will be His fame.
He is the Son of David, and His rule will never end."
This King will live and die and rise and then He will ascend.

