Long before God's people lived
Within the Promised Land,
They lived in Egypt—welcomed guests
By Pharaoh's command.

But then another Pharaoh
Arose. He was afraid
The Hebrew clans would grow and be his enemies one day.

“They'll leave my land; they'll leave my rule;
Their loss would be a pity!
I'll turn them into slaves for me
And make them build my cities.”

The Hebrew cries went up to God;
He heard their sore desire.
He spoke to Moses and He said
(from in a bush on fire):

“Take these My words to Pharaoh
For he is now My foe:
‘I’ve come to rescue Israel,
So let My people go!’ ”
