In the land of Babylon,
Many years ago,
There lived three men—Shadrach, Meshach,
And Abednego.

These were men who loved the Lord.
They worshiped Him alone,
Though other people bowed before
False gods of wood and stone.

Then the king of Babylon
Devised a wicked scheme.
He had a golden idol built,
The biggest ever seen.

All the people then were told
The king's brand-new command:
"Bow before this god of gold
When you hear my royal band.

"If you do not bow down low
When music starts to play,
I'll tell my guards to throw
You in a fire without delay!"
