

_____’s Résumé

Directions: No clay tablets today! Résumés are most likely to be created on a computer. What would your résumé look like? Fill in the four areas, keeping in mind the many ways God has blessed you in your life so far. Also look forward to His continued blessing in the years to come, and consider ways that God might use you to serve others and give Him glory.

The image shows a computer monitor and keyboard. On the monitor screen is a résumé form with four sections: Personal Background, Education, Service Opportunities, and Future Employment. The form is a simple rectangular box with a double border. The keyboard is a standard QWERTY keyboard with a mouse to its right.

The Looking Glass

At times, we all have doubts and questions that are somehow related to our faith in Jesus. Why do people get sick? Why do children sometimes die? Why didn't I make it on the basketball team? Why is math so difficult? How can God be in so many places at once? The list could go on and on. In the mirror below, write some specific questions you would like to ask God when you see Him in heaven someday!

The Miracles of Jesus

The miracles of Jesus Can show His power and might. His purpose, though, is always To bring His love to light.	1	And Jesus gives you what you need To live from day to day. Food, water, clothing, and your home Are blessings sent your way.	4
Each miracle that Jesus did Can fit a category. From A through D, each one can show His love and power and glory.	2	(B) The waves were crashing 'round the boat Upon a stormy sea. Protecting words from Jesus Made them calm as they could be.	5
(A) Jesus fed a hungry group— Five thousand, maybe more. He gave them bread and fish to eat. He loved them, rich or poor.	3	And Jesus watches over you. He's always very near. He listens to each prayer you bring. He knows what you may fear.	6

(C) Friends brought a crippled man for help. He had no cane or crutch. He knew he'd have his health again Through Jesus' word or touch.	The life you have is in God's hand. He always knows what's best. But wait—there's one more miracle That's better than the rest!
The healing hand of Jesus Christ Is with you still today. He'll help you with your problems. He'll never turn away.	The miracle of God's great plan Is given to you and me— Forgiveness, faith, eternal life. It's absolutely free!
(D) Two sisters once were very sad. Their brother dear was dead. Our Savior gave him life again. "Lazarus, arise," He said.	—written by C. S. Bergt —illustrated by _____
