

Note to Parents & Teachers

Jesus is God. Jesus is also a man. He lived without sin in our place. Then He died to take the punishment that we deserved because of our sins. But Jesus did not remain dead. Though His friends had placed Jesus in a tomb and sealed the tomb with a large rock, the grave could not hold Him. Jesus came back to life! In Jesus, we have forgiveness and a new life with Him that will last forever. After you read this book to your child, consider joining your child in saying a “Thank You” prayer to Jesus for living, dying, and coming back to life to save us.

Jesus is kind. He taught many people about forgiveness.
He told people about God. Because Jesus is God,
He did things only God can do.

Jesus fed many people with only a little food.
He made sick people better.
Jesus had many friends. They loved Jesus.

But some people did not like Jesus. They took Jesus to a cross.

Jesus died on the cross.
Jesus took our sins away.
