

Note to Parents & Teachers

For years, Hannah had prayed to God for a son. God answered her prayers with baby Samuel. Godly parents throughout the years have echoed the words Hannah spoke after Samuel's arrival. "For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition. . . . Therefore I have lent him to the LORD. As long as he lives, he is lent to the LORD" (1 Samuel 1:27–28).

What a privilege to be able to come to our God and Savior in faith, knowing He hears our prayers and will help us. What a joy to grow in faith, knowing and trusting in God and learning how to serve Him as His faithful follower!

Hannah prayed to God for a baby.
God answered Hannah's prayer.
He gave Hannah a baby boy.
She named her son Samuel. God loved Samuel.

Samuel grew.

And grew.

As he grew, Samuel's mom and dad told Samuel about God and His love.
