GOD CREATES AND GIVES LIFE

Genesis 1–2

UNIT 1 | LESSON 1

No Cavemen Here!

Genesis 2, like Genesis 1, tells us about the week of creation. But it goes back to Day 6 to fill in some details.

How did God make Adam? (Genesis 2:7) _____

God saw only one thing that was “not good.” What was it? (Genesis 2:18)

How was Eve made? (Genesis 2:21–22) _____

God did a lot of work creating the universe. What special work did God give Adam and Eve to do? (Genesis 1:26; 2:15)

What made Adam and Eve different from all the animals God created? (Genesis 1:26–27; 2:19)

There was one command God gave Adam in the first two chapters of Genesis. What was it? (Genesis 2:16–17)

COVENANT CONNECTION

The story of creation is not an isolated event; God did not create the world and then walk away from it. That was just the beginning of the covenant relationship between God and His people. In Exodus 6:7, God said, “I will take you to be My people . . . and you shall know that I am the LORD your God.” This promise was repeated again and again, as in Jeremiah 31:33–34; Zechariah 13:9b; and Luke 1:68, which all point to the promise fulfilled in Christ Jesus.

Good Work!

God gave Adam and Eve a job to do. Since everything was perfect, doing the work was also good. It was not a punishment at all!

Sometimes we grumble about chores, but we feel good inside when we've done a job well. What are two chores you help with? Why do they need to be done? List the chores and results in the chart.

The Gift of Curiosity

Did Adam and Eve know everything about gardening? Was there anything they were curious about? We don't really know! But discovering things can be a lot of fun. What are you curious about? If you could learn about anything, what would you choose? Tell a little bit about what makes that interesting to you.

God made you unique. When many people work at different tasks, wonderful things are accomplished!

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. . . . And God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good. Genesis 1:1, 31
