

Go to dark Gethsemane,
You who feel the tempter's pow'r;
Your Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with Him one bitter hour;
Turn not from His griefs away;
Learn from Jesus Christ to pray.
"Go to Dark Gethsemane" LSB 436

How does Holy (Maundy) Thursday connect to life issues?
Jesus felt the pain of worry and fear as He headed to the cross.
How did Jesus respond to these hard human emotions? He prayed.
He talked to His Father in Heaven. Jesus prayed for Himself and for us. When we face fear, anxiety, and worry, Jesus still prays for us. Like Jesus, God our Father wants us to pray to Him when we have strong feelings so He can strengthen us.

Dear Heavenly Father,
Please help me look to You when I face fear, anxiety, and worry.
Thank You for the gifts of Your love, grace, and peace that You so greatly provide me. Thank You for being with me always.
In Jesus' name, Amen.
