

USA CYCLING ATHLETE QUALIFICATION CRITERIA

February 1-2, 2020 – Dübendorf, Switzerland

GENERAL INFORMATION

Below you will find information on how a rider can qualify for nomination to the 2020 Cyclocross World Championship Team. Each category will have separate specific qualifying criteria, and each category will have its own specific number of starters allowed per quota set by the UCI. USA Cycling will only nominate riders to the 2020 Cyclocross World Championships who qualify according to these criteria. The team will be nominated according to Automatic Qualification, Discretionary Selection and Final Qualification. USA Cycling encourages you to familiarize yourself with the USA Cycling Principles of Athlete Selection (insert link) for the detailed description of the purpose and process of discretionary selection.

USA Cycling will manage logistics (food, housing, event transportation) only for the athletes and staff who are selected by USA Cycling to the World Championships Team. USA Cycling will not be responsible for or manage logistics for trade team managers, private coaches, trade team staff, athletes' families, spouses, friends or significant others. It will be the responsibility of these individuals to make separate arrangements for housing, food and transportation and they will be responsible for all costs related to any separate arrangements they might make. Additionally, these individuals will not be credentialed as part of the Team for this event unless specifically granted that privilege by the Team Manager.

Nominations will be based on final, official results from the qualifying events identified in this document as qualifying criteria. Mechanical mishaps and crashes are a part of cycling. Therefore, USA Cycling will not consider an athlete's position or placing in an event or events at the time the athlete experienced a mechanical mishap, crashed or went off course as a determining factor for selection.

The number of athlete start positions per event and category is determined in each event by the relevant governing body (UCI). These nomination procedures have been developed based on the most recent information supplied by the UCI regarding the events, athlete participation, team qualification and team size. USA Cycling's nomination procedures may be subject to change based on the final international and domestic racing calendars and/or updated information from the UCI.

Importance of International Competition

As used herein, "International Competition" includes any competition in which the field of athletes is sufficiently strong that performances in that competition are indicative of how an athlete can perform in the competition that the discretionary selection is for. International Competitions need not occur outside the United States, as "international" refers to the competitiveness of the field (i.e., includes many of the best riders from leading cycling nations around the world), not the location of the event.

Data to Support Discretionary Selections

Recommendations for discretionary nominations will be made by the USA Cycling Cyclocross Manager and Performance Director. However, the USA Cycling Selection Committee will review data on all petitioning athletes and approve ALL athlete nominations using the discretionary criteria described below. In addition to performances in International Competition or competitions specified in the Athlete Selection Procedures, the Selection Committee may consider for discretionary selections, as appropriate to the discipline, the following:

- For all selections – Validatable and credible performance data such as times on courses (or portions of courses) of similar length or course profile and/or in similar environmental conditions to the event being selected for; or athlete power data;
- For choosing between two athletes in a selection category (medal capable or future medal capable) – Data may include any or all of the following in no specific order of priority. The inclusion and order of priority for any data set may be different from event to event as determined by the USA Cycling Cyclocross Manager and Performance Director and USA Cycling Selection Committee.
 1. Race results in top international competitions;
 2. Race results in top national level competitions;
 3. Head to head competition results or performances between multiple athletes in consideration for a discretionary position;
 4. Technological data on athlete and/or event which is validatable and credible. By way of example this could include but is not limited to: times on similar courses or events, athlete power data, or event demand data.

USA Cycling Selection Committee

Recommendations for discretionary nominations will be made by the USA Cycling Cyclocross Manager and Performance Director. However, the USA Cycling Selection Committee (see the USA Cycling website for the list of Selection Committee members) will review and approve ALL athlete nominations using the criteria outlined above.

Conflict of Interest

Any member of the selection committee that has a possible conflict of interest must disclose it. Another member of the Selection Committee may also raise a potential conflict of interest of another member. For any conflict raised, the remainder of the selection committee will decide if the conflict is material by vote. In the case of a tie, the tie will be broken by the USA Cycling Director of Elite Athletics. If such conflict exists, the selection committee member must recuse him/herself from committee discussions and voting. Further, the committee member should not otherwise influence other members of the committee in the nomination process. However, a committee member who recused him/herself, but who has relevant and necessary information with respect to athlete performance, may, if requested by the selection committee, provide such information to the committee so long as such information is provided in a fair and unbiased manner and the committee member who declared the conflict of interest does not vote toward the final decision.
