DISCRETIONARY SELECTION

If positions remain after the automatic criteria have been applied, athletes may be selected to the Team by the USA Cycling Selection Committee through discretionary selection. The USA Cycling Selection Committee will consider the following criteria for all events:

A. Medal Capable Athlete– A medal capable athlete is one who has clearly demonstrated the ability to produce a medal winning result in the competition for which the athlete is being selected for by achieving one of the following criteria:

- Winning a medal (top 3 finish) within the last 24 months at a UCI World Cup or World Championships and demonstrating the continuing ability to perform at that level or higher based on performances in International Competition in the last 12 months or

- Beating previous year’s Worlds or Olympic medalists or current top UCI world ranked athletes in International Competition on multiple occasions in the past 12 months;

B. Future Medal Capable Athletes– An athlete who is future medal capable is one who has the potential to produce a medal winning result within two future Olympic Games cycles at a World Championship or Olympic Games by:

- Demonstrating a trend of improving performance in International Competition that, when logically extended out two future Olympic cycles, in consideration of the athlete’s development path, intersects the future World Championship or Olympic standard for the event under consideration; or

- Performing at a high level at World Cups or World Championships, despite competing a relatively short time in the sport or being biologically immature compared to the average peak age of World Cup or World Championship medalists;

For team events (Team Pursuit, Madison, and Team Sprint) the USA Cycling Selection Committee will consider the following criteria:

C. Athletes Who Enhance Team Performance. These selections are essential for team events where the team members must work together as a single unit. An athlete who can enhance team performance is one who, based on her or his experience, tactical proficiency, physical abilities, and willingness to work selflessly for the team objective, is expected to contribute to the performance of a medal capable team or designated team strategy. An athlete who can enhance team performance must have the right combination of power, knowledge and attitude.

Importance of International Competition

As used herein, “International Competition” includes any competition in which the field of athletes is sufficiently strong that performances in that competition are indicative of how an athlete can perform in the World Championships. International Competitions need not occur outside the United States, as “international” refers to the competitiveness of the field (i.e., includes many of the best riders from leading cycling nations around the world), not the location of the event.

Data to Support Discretionary Selections

- For all selections – Validated and credible performance data such as times, athlete power data, or aerodynamic drag data.

- For “Athletes Who Enhance Team Performance” selections – Documentation of successful execution of relevant race tactics and/or evidence of being able to meet the physical requirements of the event being selected for.

- For choosing between two athletes in a selection category – Data may include any or all of the following in no specific order of priority. The inclusion and order of priority for any data set may be different from event to event as determined by the USA Cycling Coaching staff and USA Cycling Selection Committee.

  1. Race results in top international competitions;
  2. Race results in top national level competitions;
  3. Head to head competition results or performances between multiple athletes in consideration for a discretionary position;
  4. Technological data on athlete and or event which is validated and credible. By way of example this could include but is not limited to: times on similar tracks or events, athlete power data, aerodynamic drag data (if relevant) or event demand data.
